Supplemental Application Form   CI Fellowship Program 2016-2017

The BIDMC ACGME-Accredited Clinical Informatics Training Program has three tracks for fellowship. For more information, please contact the associate program director for that track.

To which track(s) are you applying?

___ Clinical Informatics   ___ Emergency Informatics   ___ Pathology Informatics

Please summarize your background in computer science and information technology

The following is required for those applying to the emergency informatics track, and optional for others:

1. Formal Training in Computer Science / Related fields
Institution, City, State (Country):
Dates Attended: -
Degree, Field of Study:

Institution, City, State (Country):
Dates Attended: -
Degree, Field of Study:

2. Informal Training in Computer Science / Related Fields
Institution, City, State (Country):
Dates Attended: -
Field of Study:

Institution, City, State (Country):
Dates Attended:
Field of Study:

3. Experience in Computer Science, Software Development, Data Science

(This section is designed to allow the applicant to demonstrate their depth and breadth of knowledge and experiences in computer science and its associated disciplines)

Please describe your experience with any of the following concepts.

Operating Systems
Programming Languages
Software Engineering
Software Testing
User Interface Design
Machine Learning
Natural Language Processing
Biostatistics
Object Oriented Design
Databases
Electronic Health Records
Decision Support
Physician Order Entry

Please provide any additional supporting information here: